Inter-relationships are the connections and interactions between people, groups of people or parts of system within the system or outside the system. Understanding interrelationship is an important component of successfully managing a business. The relations between individual and society is very close. Essentially "Society" is the regularities, customer and ground rules of Antihuman behavior. These practices are tremendously important to know how humans act and interact with each other.

Families, friends and relationships can be affected by a wide range of issues including domestic violence, abuse, isolation, mental breakdown Poverty is the root cause of many issues within families and relations as it can lead to increased financial and emotional

There are four basic types of relationship that encompass all of this situation.

1. Family relationships.

2. Friendships.

3. Casual relationships.

4. Romantic relationships.

Expressing love in same sex relationships:

Expressing love in a same sex relationship is something natural, and a natural part of being human. To want to share love deeply and express sexually is a natural feeling in relationships and needn't alter or become an issue if the individuals are of the same sex. Being in a same sex relationship has the potential to evolve personal growth just as any other relationship does. Infact, doesn't love give us a sense that we can connect way beyond the boundaries of our Physical bodies and what we physically represent? It is possible that the love between two people can transcend way beyond an attachment to gender or sexuality. People have chosen relationships or many different reasons for example

1) A person's looks and physical attraction.

2) Financial Security and being taken care of. 3) For friendship and companionship

4) To assuage loneliness.

5) To 'fit in'

6) Religious circumstances.

7) Arranged marriages for reasons of power wealth and position in society. "In truth, when we connect to the heart and soul of another, there is no pre-existing tial based on religion, race or cave." nuptial based on religion, race or sex"
