E-Quiz COVID-19 !!
Organized by Laxmi Venkatesh Desai, College Raichur 584101, Karnataka

Dear Friend,

The recent outbreak of COVID-19 disease caused by novel corona virus is spreading rapidly throughout the world. The World Health Organization (WHO) declared it a Public Health Emergency of International Concern (PHEIC) on 30th January 2020. The virus infects humans with no discrimination with regard to country, religion or race. In India, the number of cases of individuals infected with the virus and those who succumb to the disease are rising every day. The central and state governments and local administrative bodies are putting in all the efforts to control the spread of the disease, until effective medications are available to save precious lives of our countrymen. The government has issued certain guidelines to the public based on the WHO recommendations, which, if followed carefully will save the population from the disease and help eradicate it.

In order to support the government efforts, the Laxmi Venkatesh Desai, College Raichur, Karnataka has taken initiative to increase awareness of the public about this dreadful disease. Kindly spare some time to fill up the following questionnaire based on your own knowledge about COVID-19. This questionnaire is intended for high school and college students as well as for general public. The questionnaire is designed to provide you information about the disease, how it spreads, how it can be controlled and also about how the people can remain physically fit and mentally healthy in the current situation. For every correct answer to the questions, you will get one point. Upon answering all the questions and submission of the
